MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT:

A Message from the President: Gary Leiserowitz, MD

I attended my first WAGO meeting in 1994 at the Chateau Whistler, in Whistler, B.C. as a recently graduated fellow from the Mayo Clinic working at UC Davis Medical Center. Tim Russell and Sid Scudder (both in Sacramento at the time, now both former WAGO Presidents) coaxed my wife Heather and I to come to WAGO as an alternative to the more formal SGO meeting (since as Tim put it – WAGO is the “un-SGO”). I had been lured with many stories about the great camaraderie and family atmosphere surrounding this regional Gyn Oncology meeting. Having never explored the Pacific Northwest before, Heather and I made a week out of it, landing in Vancouver and then driving up to Whistler in mid June. Thus began our yearly tradition to combine a vacation leading up to each WAGO meeting.

Heather, Erica (my daughter) and I still keep the tradition of adding a week of exploration to each annual WAGO meeting. It adds an element of new discovery to a great assembly of familiar and new friends/colleagues. As Secretary-Treasurer, one of the favorite tasks was helping to evaluate and choose a number of truly memorable meeting sites including the Fairmont Sonoma Mission Inn and the Resort at Squaw Valley. It is my privilege and honor to be President of my favorite society this year when we stay at the Westin Bayshore (which has been extensively renovated in anticipation for the Winter Games) in Vancouver, BC. When we were both on the 2006 SGO Program Committee, Walter Gottlieb and I conspired that we have a joint meeting between WAGO and the Society of Gynecologic Oncologists of Canada (GOC). The time has come to again re-experience the wonders of the Pacific Northwest (déjà vu from 1994) and make new friends with our colleagues north of the border.

Your President-Elect and Program Chair, Rusty Robinson has planned a packed, exciting, and different meeting experience with his Canadian counterpart, Jason Dodge, that melds the best characteristics from both the traditional WAGO and GOC annual gatherings. The Westin Bayshore is only a mile from the famous Stanley Park with its beautiful wooded trails (perfect for biking or walking) and multiple family activities. Vancouver has been sprucing up to host the 2010 Winter Olympics, and this will a perfect time to take in its many attractions and charms before the crowds next summer. The WAGO gathering is too good to pass up, so get your abstracts in, make your travel reservations, plan a holiday, and join us for an unforgettable meeting in Vancouver!

2009 ANNUAL MEETING: MESSAGE FROM WILLIAM R. ROBINSON, MD 2009

A word from the Program Chair

Can you believe it's already time to start thinking about the WAGO meeting again? We had such a great meeting in Sonoma last year that it hardly seems almost a year has gone by. Well, get ready because here it comes—we are planning perhaps the busiest, most interesting WAGO meeting ever for 2009. It will be a joint meeting of the Gynecologic Oncologists of Canada (GOC) and WAGO, and will be held at the Westin Bayshore Hotel in Vancouver, BC, June 24-27. We have worked closely with GOC on this meeting for several months already, and have included several of our Canadian colleagues on the Program Committee.

This year's meeting will include all of the things that you've come to expect and value from WAGO, PLUS: an online abstract submission process, a new academic poster session, robotic surgery seminar, Gyn Cancer Survivors' group exhibit, and the music of N.E.D.—the premier gyn onc rock and roll band.

N.E.D. will be fresh from recording their first studio album, on the Motema Records label. The album will not be available until late summer, so WAGO/GOC members will be among the first to hear the new music!

So I encourage you to make your reservations soon. We are expecting a good turnout for what I believe will prove to be a very memorable WAGO meeting. See you in Vancouver!

Highlights of the scientific meeting include:

- 🎤 Da Vinci robotics symposia conducted by John Boggess, M.D.
- 🎤 WAGO Presidential speaker - Lawrence Wagman, M.D.
- 🎤 GOC speaker Dennis Chi, M.D.
- 🎤 Academic poster session
- 🎤 Run-for-Life 5k
- 🎤 Maurie Markman, M.D., ASCO update and lectureship

WAGO ABSTRACT AND REGISTRATION DEADLINES

We encourage WAGO members and trainees to submit their abstracts for presentation at the meeting. The deadline for submission is March 31, 2009. This year we are trying a new online system for abstract submission. Guidelines on using the system are included with this newsletter. We will notify the presenters about the status of their abstracts by the end of April 2009. Outstanding presentations will be eligible for the James F. Nolan, J. G. Moore, and Leo D. Lagasse awards.

Also available on the WAGO website is the meeting registration form. Registration is required for any member, trainee, or guest to participate in any of the WAGO meeting functions. Reduced rate registration is available to residents and fellows accompanied by a supporting letter from their program director. In addition, trainees whose abstracts are selected for presentation will receive a rebate of their registration. DO NOT FORGET PASSPORTS FOR ALL THE FAMILY!

The 38th Annual Meeting of the Western Association of Gynecologic Oncologists will continue the tradition for great scientific and social interchange. For more information about the 38th Annual Meeting, please contact Ms. Cassandra Larkins, WAGO Executive Director, at 202-863-1648 or CLarkins@acog.org or visit the WAGO website at www.WAGOGynonc.org. On behalf of your 2009 WAGO Program Committee, we look forward to you joining us in beautiful Vancouver.

Showing commitment to protecting their surroundings, The Westin Bayshore, Vancouver is proud to be awarded the 4 Green Key Rating from The Hotel Association of Canada for national industry leadership and commitment to the environment.

Directions to Westin Bayshore Hotel Vancouver, BC

From Vancouver International Airport

There are a number of ways to get into town from the airport. Prices and directions below are for getting into Vancouver's City Center.

- Public transit - Take bus number 424 to Airport Station and change to the "98 B-Line" bus. The trip takes about 40 minutes and will cost $3.75 weekdays and $2.50 in evenings (after 6:30PM) and weekends. The bus into downtown can be crowded, but it does run frequently. Drivers take exact Canadian coin fare only; bills are NOT accepted and there is nowhere to get change once you have left the arrivals terminal, so get change first! (for further info on Vancouver's public transit system, see Get around below).
- Shuttle bus - The YVR Airporter (1-800-668-3141) is more convenient than public transit if you are staying at major hotels in downtown. The cost is $13 one way or $20 return and the service runs about every 20 minutes between 8:00AM-10:00PM. One drawback of the Airporter is it only stops at certain hotels in downtown Vancouver. If you need to go elsewhere, walking or hiring a taxi will be required.
- Taxi - Taxis line-up just outside the baggage claim areas. A taxi ride into town will cost about $25-$30 and should take under half an hour. All taxis that serve the airport are required to accept credit cards.
- Limousines - Limojet Gold offers comfortable sedan and limousine options for getting into town. Rides into the city center cost $40-$55 depending on where you are going and whether you are in a sedan or limo.
